

Praise for APSE

“Membership in APSE is a must for anyone interested in ensuring that persons with disabilities get real work with real pay. APSE provides evidence-based employment research, cutting-edge training conferences, and a place where advocates from all walks of life can get together to discuss employment issues.”

♦ Paul Wehman, Ph.D.

Professor of Physical Medicine, Rehabilitation and Special Education, VCU

“APSE gives me a chance to use my gift of a strong voice to show people we need to open eyes and open the doors to help other people with disabilities to get better jobs in the community. APSE is giving me a chance to show other people how they can do what they want to do.”

♦ TJ Monroe

Self-Advocate

“We have long recognized that people with disabilities can excel at work found throughout our medical center. APSE gives us a better understanding of the accommodations, adaptations and other tools we need to make this a universally acceptable workplace...”

♦ J. Erin Riehle, MSN

Director of Disability Services
Cincinnati Children’s Hospital Medical Center

APSE is a growing national 501(c)6 non-profit membership organization formed in 1988 as the Association for Persons in Supported Employment, now known as APSE, to lead in the advancement of equitable employment for citizens with disabilities. APSE hosts the only annual national conference focused solely on the advancement of integrated employment.

We're looking for additional members to advance our mission...

businesses, policy makers, citizens with disabilities and their families, supported employment and rehabilitation professionals, and educators...

people like you.
